Wednesday morning

Dear Mona -

I had already sealed this envelope when my brother phoned. We had a long discussion about Sandford, Mansford + Peter who are listed as children of Cyrus + Adah Burley - so I steamed the envelope open and am sending this note along with data on Rose family.

I found the data on the early Burleys in Rabbits I + II - as you said. Not all the children listed here are in our Bible records and one who was, Lusinday b 1833 had probably died as a child. Sandford Peter and Mansford are not in the Bible. The ones that are I'm listing below:

John (Randolph) b. Sept. 19, 1820

Olive b. Sept. 5, 1822

Lydia b. April 9, 1825

Silvester b. Nov. 6, 1829

Lusinday b. Dec. 2, 1833

Matilda b. Nov. 27, 1839

Also listed is Arthur Burley son

This info on Sandford (Mrs. Mrs.
Burke of Newburgh)
went to Beverley
Burley kindness of her mother

Cornwall b. April 31, 1838. We believe that Cyrus + Adah may have brought Cornwall up. Arthur was Cyrus' brother.

We believe that they also brought up Manford who seems to be another brother's child - Sylvester. His wife Caroline died in 1852 at age 42 and must have left quite a few children motherless.

Certainly Peter probably was not a child of Cyrus for he was born the same year as Lydia.

My brother and I believe that Semford + Peter were not children of Cyrus + Adah. They may have been Bury relatives - children of brothers or cousins. They also may have been adopted from other families. Hopefully, time will tell.

We do have bits + pieces of information on a Sondford + Peter. When we have it sorted out I'll give you a call.

Sincerely,
Diane

Dear Beverley & Wayne -

Sorry it has taken me so long to get these charts off to you.

Your mother was on her trip to Albany & she found another Burley researcher in Oregon. I have a good deal of correspondence that was exchanged between my Dad and Martin Burley of Oregon many years ago. Martin was descended from Joseph Burley of Wilton, one of Cornelius, U.S.'s brothers who came here in the 1790's & would be very interested to know

Who the researcher is that your Mother found and if it is the same Martin.

Good searching

Diane MacKinnon

P.S. Freeman's will must be in L + A County Registry Office under
Lot 8 or 9, Concession 3, Ernestown. If you can't find it let me know.

I have information on Sandford, son of Sandford + brother of Joseph Durley who m. Martha Deyo (SEE CHART on Sandford 1's family.) A Mrs. Burn of Newburgh sent it to my Dad at one time if you are interested in a copy please let me know
